you will enjoy it - and I am very happy that I am at last able to save some of the Flowers of Our Lost Romance - which has been a dream of mine for the past 35 years.

You will be glad to know that the first edition of a thousand copies is practically subscribed for in advance of publication, so that I shall put on a second edition at once.

With best wishes,

Mr. James L. Paine,
10 State Street,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Paine:

Thank you! The book is going to you as soon as off the press - in about three weeks. I think you will enjoy it - and I am very happy that I am at last able to save some of the Flowers of Our Lost Romance - which has been a dream of mine for the past 35 years.

You will be glad to know that the first edition of a thousand copies is practically subscribed for in advance of publication, so that I shall put on a second edition at once.

With best wishes,

Your Classmate and Friend,
